

THE REIVERS WAY

INFORMATION

Walk in the footsteps of the notorious border reivers and discover how they survived centuries of strife and warfare. The Reivers Way wanders for 150 miles (240 kilometres) through the wildest and most scenic parts of Northumberland, taking in the North Pennines, Hadrian's Wall, Tynedale, Redesdale, the Simonside Hills, Coquetdale, the Cheviot Hills and the Northumberland Coast, with an option to include the Farne Islands. Northumberland's wild and sparsely populated landscapes include a national park, Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty and a fine heritage coast.

The route is described in 9 days with variants and alternative routes, including background information on the history and heritage of the region and the bird reserves of the Farne Islands.

With details of all useful services and facilities along the way and OS mapping.
