New edition of our popular guide to the region, with several new trekking routes

- Avalanche!

the first in a new 'mini-guide' series, small and practical for using in the mountains

- Mountain Weather

A new edition, in full colour, now in the style of our other successful 'Techniques' series

NEW BOOKS TO WATCH!

The Julian Alps of Slovenia has already proved itself in popularity. Replacing an old guide covering the region, this new guide has all the ingredients to help make a great walking holiday in this popular area.

The new guide Walking in the Cairngorms has been very well received, "This is an excellent book" (Scottish Rights of Way and Access Society) and adds to a growing number of important new guides to the hills and mountains of Scotland. The two new Munros guides you should already know well – they have reached the 'top ten' already!

Don't forget all the northern England trails and walking guides which came out over the summer, The Teesdale Way, The Dales Way, The Cleveland Way and Wolds Way, Walking on the North York Moors, The Border Country: A Walker's Guide, The Ribble Way. Many are new full-colour editions of best-selling guides to these trails and regions, which confirm the Cicerone guide as the most up-to-date and authoritative available.

CICERONE SPONSOR KENDAL MOUNTAIN BOOK FESTIVAL

We are delighted to be the main sponsor of the Kendal Mountain Book Festival 2005, which will take place from 12th to 20th November 2005.

Kendal Mountain Festival offers visitors a rare opportunity to hear and see an array of films, lectures, readings, debates, and unique art and photography.

The festival brings together outdoor adventurers, writers, filmmakers and photographers from around the world to exchange stories and ideas.

Cicerone's sponsorship and investment from Arts and Business has enabled the Festival to attract the highest quality writers and create events designed to generate increased interest in mountain literature.

OTHER NEWS

The new Cicerone catalogue is now available. You should have received your copy by now, but if you have not, or if you would like more copies, please just give us a call and we will send you whatever you need.

The new series of mini-guides covering essential skills to develop greater mountain awareness and safety kicks off with Avalanche!, this autumn. Snow has been delayed in translation, so may not now be available until 2006. Other new guides include new editions of Walking on the Isles of Scilly, Via de la Plata, 100 Hut Walks in the Alps and Mountain Weather, as well as the delayed Cycling in the French Alps.

Over the winter months we will be beginning work to develop our website, which we hope will introduce many more people to Cicerone. We plan to make the new site suitable for you, our trade customers, to access, and have many other features to help generate interest. Watch out for more details in the next newsletter.

Don't forget we can now offer our trade customers posters, catalogues and spinners. The sizes of spinner range from counter-top (holding around 40–50 books) to large floor spinners (holding up to 340 books). We provide the spinner, and work with the store to select and develop a suitable range.

Tony Howard's acclaimed WADI RUM guide is now reprinting – carefully timed to miss Neil Morrissey's televised adventure!
