Guidebook to 40 half and full day coastal walks in Andalucía. Walks are graded and grouped according to coastal region, which correspond to different National Parks and protected areas such as Níjar-Cabo de Gata, La Sierra de Mijas and La Sierra de las Nieves. The routes, which can be walked all year round, range from 6km to 19.5km and are suitable for any reasonably fit walker.

The picturesque coastline of Andalucía is a walker's dream. Sandwiched between mountain and sea, walkers are rewarded with both dazzling mountain vistas and stunning seascapes. The sense of history embedded in these ancient coastal byways – which dates back to ages past – is an added delight, making the walking all the richer.

Step-by-step route descriptions are accompanied by 1:50,000 mapping as well as a time estimate for completing each route. This guide also includes a handy route summary table and details all the practical information a walker might need – getting there, when to go, what to take, eating out, accommodation and more.

Key marketing points

- Year-round walking - best between March-June and September-October
- 8.5 million visitors/year visit Andalucía, of which nearly half a million visit to enjoy walking and the natural surroundings

About the author

Guy Hunter-Watts has lived and worked in Andalucía since the 1980s. After studying at the universities of Santiago and Salamanca he taught English in South America before moving to the Ronda mountains where he has been leading guided walks for almost 25 years. His work as a walking guide and freelance journalist has taken him to many corners of the planet including India, Namibia, Tanzania, Latin America and Mongolia.
